CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.
On the 19th of April conventions were held in twelve of the thirteen congressional districts (the Second district convention having been held on the 24 of February) for the selection of delegates to the Chicago convention, and the action of these conventions is summarized in the following resolutions, which were adopted enthusiastically:

FIRST DISTRICT, AT EVANSVILLE.
Resolved, That the Republicans of the First congressional district of Indiana, in convention assembled, heartily and unanimously endorse Indiana's distinguished son, Gen. Benjamin Harrison, for the office of chief magistrate of this Nation, and we request the delegates this day chosen to represent us in the national convention at Chicago to exhaust all honorable means to secure his nomination.

SECOND DISTRICT, AT WASHINGTON.
The convention in this district was held Feb. 2, and the delegates elected were instructed to vote for General Harrison. The resolution was not sent in by the Journal's correspondent.

THIRD DISTRICT, AT SEYMOUR.
Resolved, That we recognize in Gen. Benjamin Harrison a gallant soldier, a statesman of the highest type and ability, and an uncompromising Republican. As a man his character is clean, as a public servant his record is above reproach; he is, therefore, our choice for the Republican nomination for President, and we believe that under the leadership of General Harrison we can achieve a glorious victory and redeem the Nation from Democratic misrule.

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates to the Republican national convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice president of the United States, selected by the Republicans of the Third congressional district, in convention assembled, are hereby instructed to both talk and vote, using honorable means within their power to secure the nomination of Gen. Ben Harrison for President, until he is nominated, or until the entire Indiana delegation is proper to withdraw his name from before the convention.

FOURTH DISTRICT, AT MADISON.
Resolved, That Hon. Ben Harrison is our choice for the presidency, and we instruct our delegates to use their influence in the national Republican convention to secure his nomination.

FIFTH DISTRICT, AT MARTINSVILLE.
The Republicans of the Fifth congressional district, in delegate convention assembled, resolve, first, that we recognize the conspicuous ability, the lofty patriotism, the sterling character, the eminent public services and the uncompromising Republicanism of our distinguished fellow-citizen, Gen. Ben. Harrison.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse his nomination for President of the United States, and we request our delegates to the national convention at Chicago to use all honorable means to secure his nomination for President of the United States.

SIXTH DISTRICT, AT BUSHVILLE.
Resolved, That we recognize in Gen. Ben Harrison a gallant soldier, a profound lawyer and a statesman of commanding ability. His private character is clean and his public record is above reproach, and that we express the confident belief that under his leadership the Republicans can carry Indiana and redeem the Nation from the disgrace of Democratic administration. We therefore cordially endorse his nomination for President of the United States, and we request our delegates to the national convention at Chicago to use all honorable means to secure his nomination for President of the United States.

SEVENTH DISTRICT, AT INDIANAPOLIS.
Resolved, That it is the sentiment of the Republican party of this district that Gen. Benjamin Harrison is the best and most available man for the high office of President of the United States, and we request our delegates to the national convention at Chicago to use all honorable means to secure his nomination for President of the United States.

EIGHTH DISTRICT, AT CRAWFORDSVILLE.
We hereby recognize the upright personal character, the high public record and the distinguished services of our fellow-citizen, Gen. Benjamin Harrison. We are proud of his leadership in the Indiana delegation, and we request our delegates to the national convention at Chicago to use all honorable means to secure his nomination for President of the United States.

NINTH DISTRICT, AT FRANKFORT.
Recognizing in the coming contest the necessity of leadership, and the confidence of the people, and knowing Gen. Ben Harrison to possess these in an eminent degree, tested in war and peace, in the Senate and on the field, in public and private life, we name him as our choice for President, therefore,

Resolved, That we instruct the delegates chosen by this convention to the national convention at Chicago to use all honorable means for his nomination.

TENTH DISTRICT, AT DELPHI.
No resolution was presented to this convention, but each of the delegates pledged himself to support General Harrison at Chicago.

ELEVENTH DISTRICT, AT MARION.
Whereas, General Benjamin Harrison is the choice of the Republicans of this district for President, and as that choice has been manifested to us by a vote of unity rarely, if ever exceeded, and

Resolved, That the delegates cannot be fairly represented in the national convention by any person who is not thoroughly and devotedly both now and after the national convention, and who is not a laborer, committed to General Harrison's candidacy, and

Whereas, In a matter so dear to the hearts of the Republicans in this district, we are unwilling that our representatives in the national convention shall at any time, assume as our representatives to act or vote in any other interest, and

Resolved, That it is our desire and purpose, on that question, to leave nothing to surmise, conjecture, speculation or construction; therefore,

Resolved, That our delegates be, and they are, hereby instructed to devote all their time and their very best efforts to secure the nomination of General Harrison, and to vote for him, and to support him, and to use all honorable means within their power to secure his nomination for President.

THIRTEENTH DISTRICT, AT GOSHEN.
Recognizing the ability, integrity and popularity of our distinguished fellow-citizen, Gen. Benjamin Harrison, and the great services in the past which he has rendered to his country and to his party, and his recent fitness for the office of President of the United States, therefore,

Resolved, That the delegates this day chosen to represent this district in convention at Chicago be and are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Gen. Benjamin Harrison for President of the United States.

EXPRESSION OF THE STATE CONVENTION.
On the 34 of May the State convention met at Indianapolis to elect the delegates-at-large, and adopted, without a dissenting vote, the following resolution:

The Republicans of Indiana, assembled in State convention, present to the favorable consideration of the Republicans of the United States, and of the national convention to be held in Chicago on the 19th of June, proximo, the name of Gen. Benjamin Harrison as their choice for President of the United States.

LIBERTY HERALD: General Harrison is worthy of the presidency from every standpoint, and as a candidate has the merit of being the choice of the people, and of the party, and of the Nation.

GREENSBURG STANDARD: The Republicans of Indiana are proud to understand that Indiana did not endorse Gen. Harrison for the presidency because they wanted Judge Gresham. The Democrats are booming Gresham because they know that the nomination of General Harrison means certain defeat for the Democratic party.

MARTINSVILLE REPUBLICAN: The prospects for General Harrison's nomination at Chicago are increasing every day, and we predict that after the delegates meet and confer together and read the candidacies and talk the matter over, he will grow rapidly, for he certainly has more elements of strength and fewer elements of weakness than any other candidate.

PERU REPUBLICAN: The foolish ravings of Democratic politicians and of many misanthropic newspapers in Chicago and St. Louis, to the effect that General Harrison is not the strongest man in this State for President son as their choice for candidate for President of the United States.

Resolved, That we recognize with special delight the ability, integrity and excellent services of Senator Gen. Benjamin Harrison, and do hereby endorse him as the Republican candidate for President of the United States, and we request our delegates to the national convention at Chicago to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.
